This was a resumption of the conference started on Thursday afternoon. Then certain propo sitions were put up to the engineers. The propositions submitted by the Federal mediators it was agreed were to be referred to the committee of fifty representing the engineers of the fifty railroads involved in the dispute and the subcommittee of engineers it was arranged should have another conference with Judge Knapp and Commissioner Neill at 3:30 in the afternoon.

"The railroad men don't seem to want peace," said Grand Chief Stone. "Our position is the same as it was at the first. They will yield nothing."

At 2 P. M. the railroad managers' subcommittee had a talk with the Federal mediators, and the engineers' representatives had their second conference with the mediators at 3:30. Neither Mr. Neill nor the engineers would talk on the result. Judge Knapp was equally reticent. The railroad managers' representatives again met the two Federal mediators at 5 P. M.; and will meet them again to-day. It was peace, but none of the conferees would express an opinion.
